

to the county hospital yesterday, suffering, the doctors say, with delirium tremens.

A few days ago a man came to me at our mission and said, "Did you read the article in our morning paper about the boy who was found on a street car suffering with delirium tremens?" I informed him that I had read the article he referred to. "Well," said he, "what do you think of it? Isn't that just awful for a boy fifteen years old to be found in such a condition?" Well, I said, brother this is no surprise to me, but what does surprise me is that not more of our boys and girls are found in that condition, for when father and mother encourage that kind of work, what else do you expect. I believe it was King Solomon who spoke the proverb, "Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it." The trouble with so many parents is, they train their children in the wrong way.

RESOLUTIONS

Passed by the Young People's Society of the Brethren Church, of Philadelphia.

Whereas, We are reliably informed that a number of our brethren, among them some of our preachers, belong to the Masonic Fraternity and kindred secret, oath-bound Societies ;—

Whereas, The Word of God prohibits the taking of oaths, and commands all the followers of the Lord Jesus Christ to be a separate and "peculiar people ;" and admonish the children of God to "have nothing to do with the unfruitful works of darkness," and ;—

Whereas, nearly all oath-bound, Secret Societies purposely omit, and thus virtually reject Jesus Christ from their institutions, and ;—

Whereas, Among their members there are the Unregenerate, Jews, Catholics, Mohammedans, Heathens, Infidels and Libertines, and ;—

Whereas, In most Secret Societies men are sworn to honor, respect and protect their fellow members at the expense of law and right, if need be, and ;—

Whereas, Some of the Secret Societies pretend to occupy the place of the church, and have recently baptized children into their Christless Institutions, it is Resolved, That, an appeal to all of our members who are conscientiously opposed to these Societies to earnestly and ceaselessly pray for the deliverance of such as have become members of them ; and it is further Resolved, That, we regularly at the weekly prayer meetings of the society pray God to bring light and conviction upon such of our brethren as have become entangled with such worldly, unsanctified Institutions.

Whereas, We the Young People's Society of the Brethren church of Philadelphia, Pa., do not believe that the Lord is pleased with such affiliations, and do not believe he will signally bless us as a body with the presence and power of the Holy Spirit as long as we quietly, without protest submit to such alliances.

It is hereby Resolved, That, as the beneficial and benevolent features of most Secret orders are desirable and commendable, that we memorialize our National Conference by taking some steps toward the creation of a general, voluntary, benevolent fund, to help those in need in accordance with the sacred gospel and the Apostolic church which always provided for the poor among them.

A PERFECT HOME.

The most perfect little home I ever saw was a little house into the sweet incense of whose fires went no costly things. A thousand dollars served as a year's living for father, mother, and three children. But the mother was the creator of a home; her relations with the children were the most beautiful I have ever seen ; every inmate of the house involuntarily looked into her face for the keynote of the day, and it always rung clear. From the rose-bud or clover leaf, which in spite of her hard housework she always found time to put beside our plates at breakfast, down to the story she had on hand to read in the evening, there was no intermission of her influence. She has always been and always will be my ideal of a mother, wife, and home-maker. If to her quick brain, loving heart, and exquisite face had been added the appliances of wealth and enlargements of wide culture, hers would have been absolutely the ideal home. As it was, it was the best I have ever seen.—

We direct special attention to the following remarkable statements.

For eighteen years I was not able to do any work, was confined to the house three years, often confined to the bed; took cold on the slightest exposure, eyes were weak and discharged great deal of mucous, was deaf in right ear, suffered intensely with pain in head, had fainting spells, often thought would lose my mind, and was a misery to myself and friends. Eighteen months ago used Aerial Medication, in two weeks hearing was fully restored, Catarrh gradually subsided, and in six months was entirely cured. It has been one year since I used the treatment, the disease has not returned, and I feel like a new person.—MRS. KATE ELLEGOOD, 2221 Walnut St., St. Louis, Mo.

34 years ago I had risings in my ears, had Catarrh 30 years, hearing failed, for many years could not hear loud conversation two feet away, had continual roaring in ears, hoarseness, throat sore and dry, intense pain over eyes, and "stopped up" feeling in my head. General health so impaired was not able to work. Used Aerial Medication in '92. It stopped the roaring, pain and soreness fully restored my hearing, for five years have been free from Catarrh.—WM. F. BOWERS, Howell, Ark.

"Whereas I was Deaf, Now I Can Hear."

At the age of 69, after having suffered from Catarrhal Deafness 20 years, am truly thankful to state that I am entirely cured by Aerial Medication; my hearing which had become so bad that I could not hear a watch tick, or conversation, is fully restored. I will verify this statement.—WILLIAM RITCHIE, Derby Centre, Vt.

The late Prof. Basil Manley, of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky, says of Aerial Medication: "I can cordially recommend its use." Write for fac-simile of this letter.

It has always been a pleasure to carry your ads, and your remedies are popular with our people. Bell and Van Ness, Editor Christian Index, Atlanta, Ga.
